The ice was off the lake last year on March 15, 2012. Ice off this year will be reported accordingly. The first crane of 2013 was seen on March 8th.

Lake Management Plan: The lake management plan is recorded on the Adams county site. The JLRPD Website has a link to the Adams County site.

Reesa Evans from Adams County Land and Water Conservation Department attended the meeting to discuss and answer questions regarding the Shoreline Buffer Zone Ordinance that will take effect on July 1, 2015. Any lot owner can contact Reesa Evans at 608-339-4275 or email: revans@co.adams.wi.us with any questions. She is willing to evaluate each individual home owner's lot by appointment to discuss the specifics for each lot for compliance of the ordinance. Please contact Reesa Evans regarding this matter with any questions or concerns. The Planning and Zoning Department is in charge of enforcing the Ordinance. Per Reesa, there will be a fine for lots not in compliance by July 1, 2015. Please contact Reesa Evans with any specific questions regarding this ordinance.

Karl reported on the Treatment for Eurasian Water Milfoil: The Lake was treated twice in 2012. The lake was treated at the location found near Home Again on 5/31/12. Then on 6/27/12 a few small spots on the North shore were treated. This is the last year for the three year grant. The 2013 permit is approved to treat up to 9 acres. The lake will be evaluated for Eurasian Water Milfoil and be treated accordingly. We will need to plan funding and treatment for the maintenance of the lake. Treatment of the lake may include raking to pull the weeds by divers, spot treatment with concentrated levels or entire lake application.

Dan Schleiter gave an update on the Treasurer's report.

Kyle Cassel reported on the County Lakes Association Meeting: The Adam County Lake Alliance meets to help pass along lake information and lake management. There are approximately 30 lakes represented. The next meeting is in April 2013.
